PARTY AND EVENT PLANNING

Q. What sort of stuff can you do?

A. We can assist in any way you like. Some of our Clients have no thoughts on how to bring their party together and want us to do all the heavy lifting. We can help you develop a theme for your party then collaborate with you to source a venue, arrange catering, drinks, decorative elements, entertainment etc. We deal with suppliers on your behalf so you can enjoy your celebration.

On the other hand, some Clients have already chosen some elements and want us to help with the rest or at minimum we help them decorate and style on the day. Its up to you how much we do!

A. Our Brisbane Party and Event planners are great at what they do, and we know that taking the stress of party planning away from you is worth its weight in gold! We usually charge an hourly rate which is discussed up front and is billed in part payments depending on how much notice you give us.

We also offer 'Party decoration packages' that have a set price. See our current packages here.
